NANCY REDDOCH, d2⁶

d2⁶ Nancy Reddoch was possibly the oldest of the daughters of William and Mary Rose Reddoch. Certainly this is the case from the records that have been found. She was born 12 Mar 1779 in North Carolina, at about the time that William and Mary were selling their property in Bute County and began their move toward the southwest, most likely stopping for two or more years in Johnston Co, NC, but still five years before they were to buy land in Richmond Co, GA, which was before their land grants in Washington and Wilkes Counties, GA. Nancy died 15 Aug 1852 in Howard County Arkansas and is buried at Cedar Point, Arkansas. At the estate sale in Hancock Co, GA, which was in 1804, she signed as "Nancy Reddoch". She married John M Coulter in 1807. He was born 4 Jan 1879, died 5 Oct 1848, and is also buried in Howard County, Arkansas. They were the parents of five sons and two daughters as follows Issue:

a3⁷ William M Coulter, b Jones Co, GA, 4 Feb 1803, d 9 Oct 1857;
m Martha Campbell

b3⁷ David Coulter, b Jones Co, GA, 1810, d 1894; m Elizabeth c3⁷ Peter Coulter, b Jones Co, GA 1812, d 1868; m Sarah Yoakum

d3⁷ Mary Coulter, b 12 Dec 1812, Jones Co, GA, d 26 Oct 1846, m Wiley McElroy

e3⁷ James Madison Coulter, b 6 Dec 1815, d 16 Mar 1892, Brunette Wilkerson Burton

f3⁷ Matthew Coulter, b 31 Mar 1821 Jones Co, GA, d 15 Apr 1858
m Sarah Ann McClain g3⁷ Elizabeth Coulter, b in Mississippi, where she married and stayed the remainder of her life.

Nancy and John Coulter moved from Jones Co, GA to Pontococ, Lowndes County, MS around 1820, when the other members of the William Reddoch family moved west, some to Covington Co, MS, others to Butler Co, AL, and still others to Upson Co, GA.

Data on The Coulter Family came from the "Descendants of John Coulter", compiled by Sarah Graves Coulter and published by Dr John Coulter.

Data relating to the settling of the estate of William Reddoch is from The Georgia Archives, Atlanta, GA, Drawer 106, Box #50, Book G, 1806, Hancock County, p 240. See page 7c

Dear Ms. Strickland,

I was given your name and address by Mr. Robert Lowry of Mertztown, PA. He thought you might be interested in some of my ancestors as they were early settlers of southeast Mississippi.

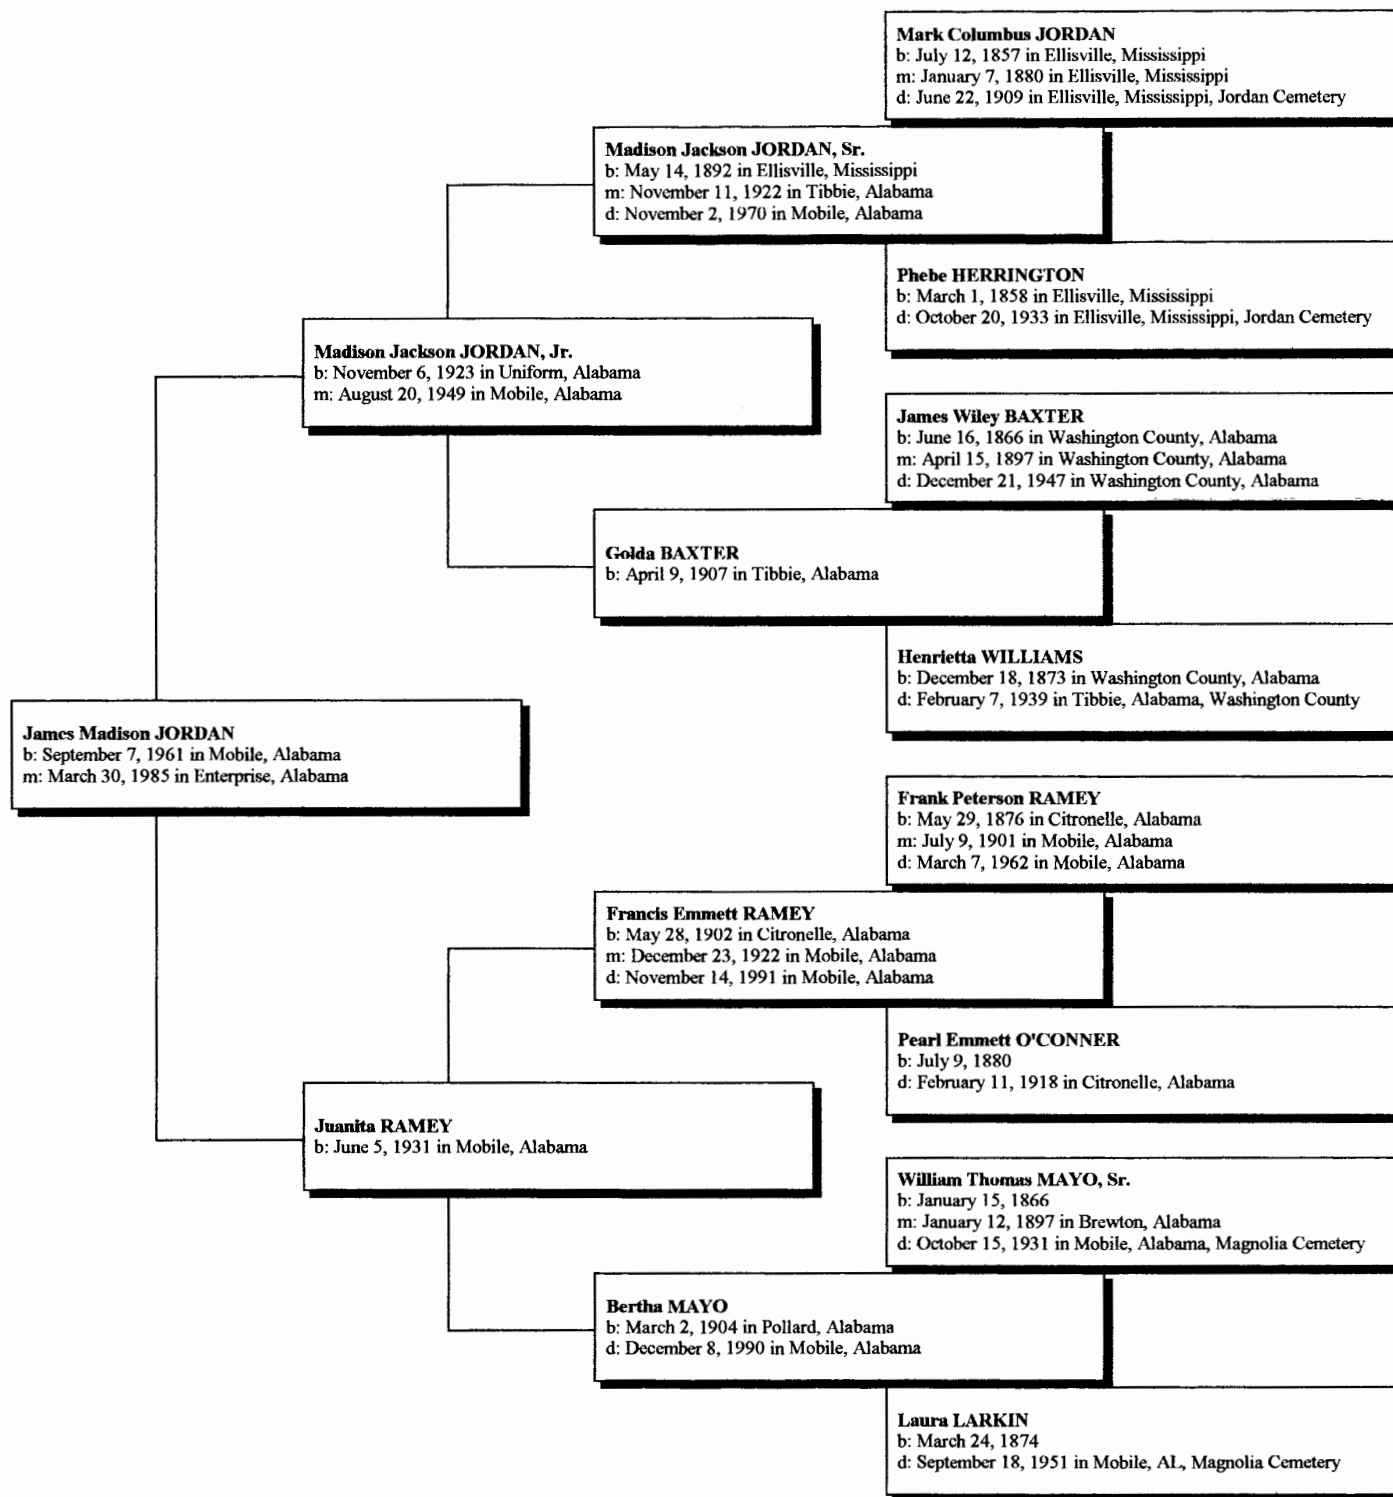

I have enclosed some of my lineage sheets for your reference. I would be happy to exchange any information you may be interested in on these lines.

Lou Reddoch Holloman was with him and he asked her to bend a bush so that he would have something to hold to. Some say that he could not swim which would have been unusual for a boy reared in the country. From A Baine Reddoch, Laurel, MS

JAMES A REDDOCH, f2⁶

f2⁶ James A Reddoch was the fifth son and possibly the sixth child of William 1⁵ and Mary Rose Reddoch. He was b in NC (1) in 1782 and d in Covington Co, MS after 1862. He m Nancy Anna Youngblood ca 1810, who was b about 1795 and d ca 1863 in Covington Co, MS (2). They moved to Mississippi about 1818, when most of William's a1⁵, family left Baldwin and Hancock Counties, GA. Alexander, b2⁶, patented land in Mississippi (3), but the land was either sold to James or the patent transferred to him, for Alexander probably, with his brother, David, c2⁶, returned east stopping in Butler Co, AL in the vicinity of where his wife's family, the Perdues, had already settled (4). David was in Butler Co at that time, but after a period returned to Baldwin Co, GA for the 1820 census.

Moving to Mississippi with James were his mother, Mary, Peggy, g2⁶, who had m2 a Youngblood, possibly a brother of Nancy Anna. Another sister and her family, Mary, h2⁶, who m Solomon Bennett Langston, stopped in Mobile, CO, AL, before she and her family joined them. James had an active part in the management of his mother's affairs after his father's death; and, in the years just prior to William's, 1⁵, demise, he had charge of the family's business, which leads one to suspect that William may have had a physical incapacity. Mary Rose Reddoch d in 1825, and her estate was settled by James. (5) & (6)

- 1) 1850 Census Covington Co, MS. James A Reddoch's will was dated and signed by him on 15th May 1852 (Covington Co, MS wills)
- 2) She was listed in both the 1850 and 1860 censuses of Covington Co, MS In 1850 she was 58 yrs, b in GA; James 68, b in NC.
- 3) According to the land records he settled on the east bank of Leaf River in the eastern part of Covington Co in 1818 - 160 ac in the NE corner of Section 33, near where US Highway 84 crosses the river. - 1) Sidney Lamar Reddoch had no family. He drowned in the Leaf River—a kind of freak accident—at the crossing of the old ferry. Lou Reddoch Holloman was with him and he asked her to bend a bush so that he would have something to hold to. Some say that he could not swim which would have been unusual for a boy reared in the cuntry. From A Baine Reddoch, Laurel, MS

MARY REDDOCH, h2⁶

h2⁶ Mary Reddoch, b ca 1792 in Georgia (58 yrs of age in 1850, Covington Co, MS, was probably the youngest of the eight children of William Reddoch 1⁵ and Mary Rose). She did not sign the deed that finally settled her father's estate in 1804. She was a minor and Solomon Langstrom (Langston) signed for her. They were married about 1804 (1). He was the son of an older Solomon Langston who married Sarah Bennett. They moved west and south when other members of the family left Georgia, but stopped for a period in Mobile Co, AL before joining the others near what after became Laurel, MS. They were in Mobile County for the 1850 census. Solomon Bennett Langston made his will about 1848 in Covington or Jones Co, MS, but the courthouse burned. The will was remade from memory by Mary Reddoch and is now on file in the Jones Co, Courthouse. He named his living children in his will, as follows:

a3⁷ Ann Elizabeth Langston, m a Worthy, b & d dates not available

b3⁷ Sophia Langston, m Miley, b & d dates not available

c3⁷ James Hiram Langston, b--, d--, m Mary Ann Reddoch, dau of John A & Elizabeth Hill Reddoch, son of James A Reddoch, e2⁶

d3⁷ Hester Langston

e3⁷ Matthew Langston

- 1) The Langston and Reddick (ock-h) families were associated over a period of years, for more than one or two generations. It is likely that Dicey Reddoch, who was the wife of David Reddoch, c2⁶ was in some way related to the Langstons--but nothing specific has been found. Solomon Langston married Sarah Bennett and was the father of Solomon Bennett Langston. He left a will in Laurens Co, SC, Feb 1810, naming his children (Will Book E, p 513, bundle 43, pkg 12). There was Reddick Langston in Darlington Co, SC in the 1810 and the 1830 census.

Evidence suggests that Dicey Reddoch was a Kitchen, and her mother is likely to have been the dau of Leodicia Langston Springfield, dau of Solomon Langston and Sarah Bennett. This has not been substantiated.

PEGGY REDDOCH, g2⁶

g2⁶ Peggy Reddoch, b ca 1783-84. Records on Peggy are meager. She may have been older than John and James, but this is doubtful, making her birth 1781. At the time, 1804, of finalizing the sale of land which settled her father's estate when all of the heirs signed, she signed "Peggy Reddoch". In 1810 an estate for Joseph Kramer was administered in Hancock County GA, in which she was the chief benefactor (1). They must have married about 1808. There were no known children. She lived with James or near him and married the second time a Youngblood (Joshua?), probably a brother of Nancy Anna Youngblood, the wife of James, f2⁶. His name is not known. He apparently died before 1820. She with her husband moved to Mississippi with James and Nancy, along with her mother, Mary Rose Reddoch; and lived near them after settling where Laurel, MS is now located.

The 1820 and 1830 Censuses of Covington and Jones Counties (2) show no males in either case, indicating that she was a widow again. In both enumerations there were dependant females listed in Jones Co -- her age was 40-60 years. (3)

- 1) Georgia Archives and History, Atlanta, GA, drawer 102, Box 50, Hancock County Estates, 1806, Book G

- 2) The 1820 Census for Covington Co MS shows the following:
Peggy Youngblood - no males
2 females under 10 yrs
1 female 16-26 yrs

The 1830 Census for Jones County MS gives the data below:
Peggy Youngblood - no males

1 female under 10 yrs
2 females 10-20 yrs
1 female 40-60 yrs

These reports indicate that Peggy was a widow before 1820 and that her birth date was ca 1783-84

- 3) Jones County Mississippi was formed from Covington and Wayne Counties in 1826
